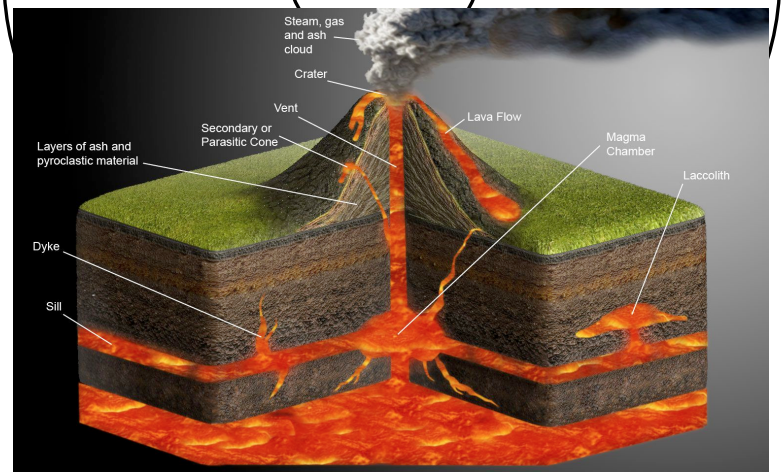
Science Text book

Ch 6 Sec 2

a pocket below a volcano

it collects magma

Magma chamber



Science Text book

magma move through this connects magma chamber to ground a long tube

pipe

an opening in the volcano there is usually only one lava and gases escape here vent

the area covered by lava as it leaves the vent lava flow

a bowl-shaped area

may form around the top or central vent of the volcano crater

made from silicon and oxygen found in magma and lava used to make glass

silica

mixture of ash, hot gases, cinders and chunks of lava flows down the sides of the volcano like an avalanche pyroclastic flow

http://dsc.discovery.com/tv-shows/discovery-presents/videos/ultimate-guide-to-volcanoes-pyroclastic-flow.htm describes a volcano that is sleeping that could still erupt

dormant

a volcano that will never erupt again extinct

found in areas with volcanoes water underground is heated a fountain of water and steam geyser