

Title of the Article

The article (name of article) from (name of magazine) is about (main idea of the article). At the beginning of the article (describe your first event). Later in the article (describe your next event). After that (describe your next event). Later on (describe your next event). Later (describe your next event). Finally (describe your last event). I think the article was (state your opinion) because (give at least one reason).